SPEAKER: The chair recognizes Senator Warner.

SENATOR WARNER: Mr. President, I was just going to suggest, rather than take up the item at the moment, I would think Senator Goodrich's suggestion may somewhere be in the area but I would guess we would have a better idea, Senator Lewis, a little later this morning.

SPEAKER: Your point is well taken, Senator Warner, we shall continue with Final Reading. Will the Senators please take their seats?

CLERK: Mr. President, we have a request on LB 268, to hold over Final Reading until after Easter vacation. Signed, Senator Wiltse. OK. It is being withdrawn, Mr. President.
